

Kathryn P. Koslow Center for Marriage and Family Therapy

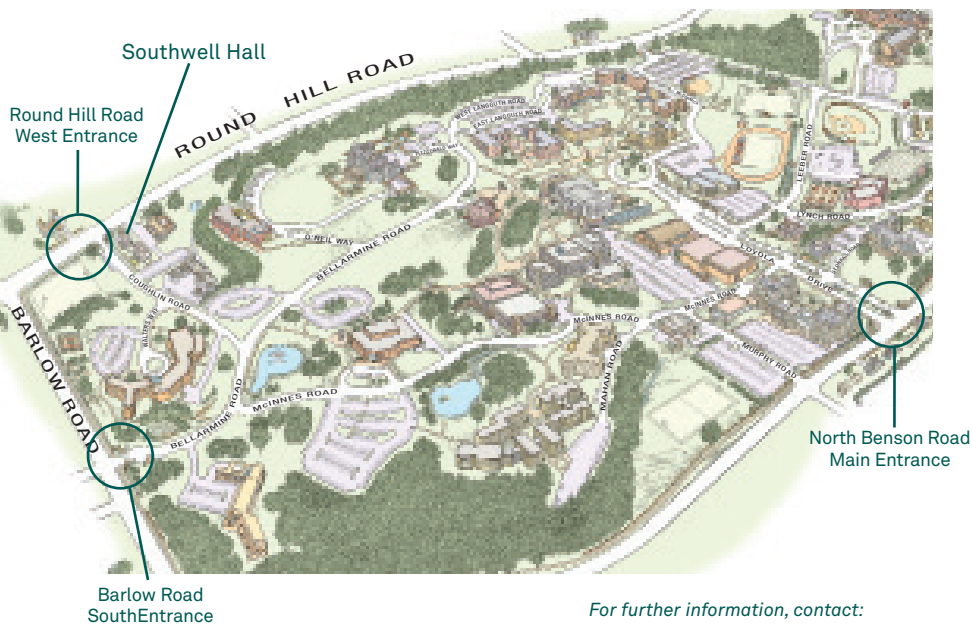

DIRECTIONS

From New York via Connecticut Turnpike (I-95): Take exit 22. At the end of the ramp, turn left onto Round Hill Road and go to second stop sign. Continue straight on Round Hill and take your first right into the entrance of the campus. The Koslow Center is the first building on your left.

From New Haven via Connecticut Turnpike (I-95): Take exit 22. At the end of the ramp, turn right onto North Benson Road and proceed to the first traffic light. Take a left onto Barlow Road and continue straight to the next stop sign. Take a right onto Round Hill Road. Take your first right into the entrance of the campus. The Koslow Center is the first building on your left.

From New York or New Haven via the Merritt Parkway (Rt. 15): Take exit 44 onto Black Rock Turnpike (Rt. 58) From New York: take a left off the exit, then a right onto Rt. 58 South. From New Haven: take a left off the exit and a left onto Rt. 58 South.

Continue on Rt. 58 south toward the business district. Proceed 2 miles on Rt. 58 to the intersection with Stillson Road (Rt. 135) and turn right. At the second stop light, bear left at the fork onto North Benson Road. Continue straight past the University's main entrance on your right, to the 2nd light at Barlow Road. Take a right onto Barlow Road. Continue straight to Round Hill Road and take a right at the four-way stop. Take your first right onto campus. The Koslow Center is the first building on the left.

For further information, contact:

Kathryn P. Koslow Center for Marriage
and Family Therapy – Fairfield University
1073 North Benson Road
Southwell Hall
Fairfield, CT 06824-5195
Telephone: (203) 254-4000, ext. 2306
Fax: (203) 254-5586
www.fairfield.edu/koslow

FAIRFIELD UNIVERSITY

Kathryn P. Koslow Center for Marriage and Family Therapy

Fostering Hope,
Change, and Solutions

Fostering Hope, Change, and Solutions

SERVICES

We provide confidential services to individuals, couples, and families experiencing a range of issues, such as:

- Depression
- Anxiety
- Life Adjustment
- Grief and Loss
- Parent/child conflict
- Child/adolescent issues
- School-related concerns
- Coping with aging parents
- Retirement issues
- Breakdown in family communication
- Pre-marital concerns and issues
- Separation, divorce, and remarriage
- Communication issues
- Sexual and intimacy needs

Marriage and family therapists provide comprehensive clinical services and work cooperatively with other medical and mental health professionals to ensure complete treatment and client care.

FEES

Charges for services at the Koslow Center are based on a sliding fee scale according to family income and circumstances. No one will be denied services due to financial constraints.

CONFIDENTIALITY

The ethical principals and standards of the American Association of Marriage and Family Therapy (AAMFT), as well as state laws regarding confidentiality and professional practice are rigorously adhered to by all therapists.

POLICIES

Therapy is provided by advanced graduate students in the Master's of Marriage and Family Therapy Program in Fairfield University's Graduate School of Education and Allied Professions. A supervisory team, which includes an experienced faculty member, ensures that clients receive the best services possible. Supervisors are Connecticut state licensed marriage and family therapists who are credentialed to treat and supervise services to individuals, couples, and families through the professional application of family systems approaches. Clients are requested to give their written consent to these policies at the onset of therapy.

For appointments, please call 203-254-4000, ext. 2306 or visit us online at www.fairfield.edu/koslow for more information.

STAFF/CLINICAL SUPERVISORS

DR. RONA PRELI, LMFT
Marriage and Family Therapy Program Director
AAMFT Approved Supervisor
AAMFT Clinical Fellow
Connecticut State Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist

DR. NICOLE O'BRIEN, LMFT
Clinical Director
AAMFT Approved Supervisor
AAMFT Clinical Fellow
Connecticut State Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist

MARYANN LABELLA, M.A., LMFT
Clinic Administrator
AAMFT Approved Supervisor
AAMFT Clinical Fellow
Connecticut State Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist

DR. ERICA HARTWELL
AAMFT Approved Supervisor Candidate
AAMFT Associate Fellow

RENEE STRAINGE, M.S., LMFT
AAMFT Approved Supervisor
AAMFT Clinical Fellow
Connecticut State Licensed School Psychologist
Connecticut State Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist

CHRISTINE WALKER, M.A., LMFT
AAMFT Approved Supervisor
AAMFT Clinical Fellow
Connecticut State Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist

The Koslow Center for Marriage and Family Therapy at Fairfield University is a nonprofit facility dedicated to providing therapeutic services to individuals, couples, and families, and to training professional marriage and family therapists. It is guided by the University's mission to care for the whole person and to promote the wellbeing of individuals, couples, families, and our communities.

The Koslow Center is in partnership with The Child and Family Guidance Center of Bridgeport, CT.